Curriculum Area Progression Summary Area of Learning: Communication – Understanding

Stage	Summary of key skills and knowledge to be acquired
1	 Understands sensory cues to indicate change and anticipate routine. Distinguishes between the familiar and unfamiliar. Responds to their own name being called, a familiar face or voice.
2	 Understands and responds to objects of reference, demonstrating anticipation of transition. Follows a partner's point to a close object and share their gaze. Understands social cues to anticipate partner's actions including facial expressions and gestures.
3	 Understands a few words, sounds, phrases and instructions in familiar situations Repeats themselves when misunderstood. Engages with objects and understands their purpose
4	 Understands simple one step directions and follows directions in role play Can pick two objects from a set of familiar objects. Understands a rapidly increasing range of single words without contextual cues
5	 Can follow simple stories Shows understanding of early grammatical structure Understands more complex sentences
6	 Understands use of objects Beginning to understand 'How' and 'Why' questions Identifies key messages and instructions within a small group setting.
7	 Understands what a character might be saying or is feeling. Follows more complex questions (E.g. 'What will happen next?'). Carries out a sequence of instructions. Participates in simple discussions with one person.
8	 Understands a range of advanced emotion labels. Understands humour, e.g. nonsense rhymes and jokes. Develops the ability to negotiate and work with peers. Identify and extract main information from a narrative.
9	 Begins to empathise Understands the use of verbal conventions within the community context (E.g. asking for a chair). Follows instructions involving several ideas or actions.
10	 Understands relevant information and lines of argument in a discussion/presentation, respecting others' views. Displays understanding of social and moral rules when interacting in the community.